

March's Books of the Month are linked to

  World Book Day

with books and authors from around the world

Year 7's 'Book of the Month' for March

'A vivid, richly atmospheric story of adventure, survival and hope'

'It is the perfect combination of adventure, friendship, cultural appreciation, and real-worldliness'

Year 8's

'Book of the Month' for

March

'Outstanding... an important and heart-breaking book'

'Frequent and unexpected humour that everyone whether teenager or adult, should definitely read'

Year 9's 'Book of the Month' for March

'A gripping read with lots of suspense and cliff-hanger endings to chapters'

'This is an intriguing adventure story where the ballad is used to move & give direction to the story'

Year 10's

'Book of the Month' for March

'Iqbal is a wonderful character and this is moving evocation of his life'

'An important, powerful story'

'D'Adamo pays fitting respect to Iqbal's name and bravery with this eye-opening, genuinely touching novel'

Year 11's

'Book of the Month' for March

'A really gripping and moving story, superbly written. The theme is excellent!'

'The author does not shy away from strong real life material when dealing with this difficult time in history'